

THE KID'S EDITION

July 2018

In this issue

- Dogs' Den storybook
- Colouring Contest
- Quiz

Hi everybody

Welcome to the July edition of the Kid's Dog Guardian. For those of you who are new members, let us introduce ourselves. We are the Dog Guardian newsletter co-editors' dogs - Tyler and Nellie, Julie's pups, and Morgan, Jill's pup. We decided the Kid's newsletter needed articles written by us dogs. We want to give you guys a dog's perspective of being responsible around us dogs. 😊

Dogs' Den story book

In the June newsletter, we started to tell you about the story we are writing. To make the story easy to read, we decided to write things that are fun and safe to do in blue. Things that we don't like and are dangerous, we will write in red. We said that we love to play with you guys. We especially like playing ball. It's lots of fun. However, we do not like being teased or chased. Some of our friends may feel threatened and could bark or growl at you. It's their way of telling you to stop.

Let us tell you more:

3

Most of us dogs are very friendly. We are eager to make new friends. Please ask our owners before petting us. Let us sniff you first. It's our way to say hello.

We know you are eager to meet us, but please don't run up to us. Some of us are nervous and may bark or growl.

Wow, writing a story is hard work for puppies. We love to work hard so we will have another page for you in our August newsletter.

Colouring Contest

Our advice of the month from the 'Fido, Friend or Foe' activity book (P.13) is that "Not every dog that wags its tail is friendly. A dog may wag its tail when happy, defensive or stressed, and it's not always easy to know the difference. A defensive or stressed dog may bite. Be safe and never approach a strange or unattended dog, even if it is wagging its tail."

Colour the picture of the puppy. Scan or take a photo of the picture you coloured, and send it to us at morejulie@hotmail.com with your email address. We will choose a winner each month and post it in our newsletter for everybody to see.

Not every dog that wags its tail is friendly.

Quiz

Let's see how much you learned from our Dogs' Den storybook. Having difficulty? Just scroll up to the storybook and reread the story.

(To check the answers, look at the bottom of the puzzle and then stand on your head. Just kidding!)

1. What is this story about?
2. Why are some sentences in red?
3. What are our names?
4. Do dogs like playing with kids?
5. Why shouldn't you tease or chase a dog?

(1) How to be safe around dogs while having fun. (2) Things that dogs don't like and are dangerous are written in red. (3) Morgan, Tyler and Nellie. (4) Yes. (5) Some dogs may feel threatened and may bark or growl at you. It's their way of telling you to stop.

Answers

Thank you

A big thank you goes to our committee for proofreading this newsletter. We really appreciate your help. You are the greatest. A special thank you to Kit Watson for the final proofreading of the newsletter.

Tyler, Morgan and Nellie